

Fatal Alert

On October 7, 2021, an employee succumbed to COVID-19-related complications. She had previously tested positive for COVID-19 in late September and had been on home quarantine.

Significant factors

- The employee was exposed to the SARS COVID-19 virus.

Recommendations

- Follow CDC recommendations for protection.
- The employer should continually monitor CDC recommendations for changes in guidance.